

The liverie of the warlike Maide appeares,
Pure red, and white, for yet no beard has blest him.
And in his rowling eyes, sits victory,
As if she ever ment to correct his valour:
His Nose stands high, a Character of honour.
His red lips, after fights, are fit for Ladies.

Emil. Must these men die too?

Per. When he speakes, his tongue
Sounds like a Trumpet; All his lyneaments
Are as a man would wish 'em, strong, and cleane,
He weares a well-steeld Axe, the staffe of gold,
His age some five and twenty.

Mess. Ther's another,
A little man, but of a tough soule, seeming
As great as any: fairer promises
In such a Body, yet I never look'd on.

Per. O, he that's freckle fac'd?

Mess. The same my Lord,
Are they not sweet ones?

Per. Yes they are well.

Mess. Me thinkes,
Being so few, and well dispos'd, they show
Great, and fine art in nature, he's white hair'd,
Not wanton white, but such a manly colour
Next to an aborne, tough, and nimble set,
Which shoves an active soule; his armes are brawny
Linde with strong sinewes: To the shoulder peece,
Gently they swell, like women new conceav'd,
Which speakes him prone to labour, never fainting
Vnder the waight of Armes; stout harted, still,
But when he fiers, a Tiger; he's gray eyd,
Which yeelds compassion where he conquers: sharpe
To spy advantages, and where he finds 'em,
He's swift to make 'em his: He do's no wrongs,
Nor takes none; he's round fac'd, and when he smiles
He shoves a Lover, when he frownes, a Souldier:
About his head he weares the winners oke,
And in it stucke the favour of his Lady:

His age, some six and thirtie. In his hand
He beares a charging Staffe, embost with silver.

Thes. Are they all thus?

Per. They are all the sonnes of honour.

Thes. Now as I have a soule I long to see 'em,
Lady you shall see men fight now.

Hip. I wish it,

But not the cause my Lord; They would show
Bravely about the Titles of two Kingdomes;
Tis pittie Love should be so tyrannous:

O my soft harted Sister, what thinke you?
Weepe not, till they weepe blood; Wench it must be

Thes. You have steel'd 'em with your Beautie:
To you I give the Feild; pray order it,
Fitting the persons that must use it.

Per. Yes Sir.

Thes. Come, Ile goe visit 'em: I cannot stay.
Their fame has fir'd me so; Till they appeare,
Good Friend be rayall.

Per. There shall want no bravery.

Emilia. Poore wench goe weepe, for whosoever
Looses a noble Cosen, for thy sins.

Scena 3. Enter Iaylor, Wooser, Doctor.

Doct. Her distraction is more at some time of the Then at other some, is it not?

Iay. She is continually in a harmelesse distemper,
Little, altogether without appetite, save often drinkin
Dreaming of another world, and a better; and what
Broken peece of matter so ere she's about, the name
Palamon lardes it, that she farces ev'ry busines

Enter Dido

Withall, fyts it to every question; Looke where
Shee comes, you shall perceive her behaviour.

Dough. I have forgot it quite; The burden o'nt, was
A downe a, and pend by no worse man, then
Giralds, Emilia Schoolemaster; he's as
Fantastickall too, as ever he may goe upon's legs,
For in the next world will Dido see Palamon, and
